

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Regional Conference of the Brazilian and Portuguese Branches of the International Law Association

The Brazilian and Portuguese Branches of the International Law Association, in conjunction with the Jean Monnet Chair, are pleased to invite professors and those who have finished at least one postgraduate degree to submit abstracts for their 2018 Regional Conference. The conference will be held in Belo Horizonte, Brazil, from May 23rd to May 25th, 2018, at the Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais (www.ufmg.br).

Abstracts must not exceed 2500 characters and must be submitted to the following e-mail: regionalconference2018@gmail.com until December 15th, 2017. Preference will be given to abstracts concerning the following subjects:

1. Theoretical approaches to International Law.
2. History of International Law in Latin America.
3. New trends in international lawmaking.
4. Codification of International Law.
5. Procedure before International courts and tribunals.
6. International Institutional Law: New challenges, which responses? Law and practice of American and European organisations.
7. International taxation: paths to the future.
8. Uniformisation of Private International Law: European and American experiences.
9. The politics of International Law.
10. Forced labour, modern slavery and human trafficking.
11. European and International Environmental Law and access to justice.
12. Empirical evidences on International Law
13. Theorizing International Economic Law.
14. International Humanitarian Law.

Decisions will be made by January 10, 2018.

For any questions or inquiries please contact the organisation committee: helpregionalconference2018@gmail.com

Aziz Tuffi Saliba
President of the Brazilian Branch of the International Law Association

Manuel de Almeida Ribeiro
President of the Portuguese Branch of the International Law Association